BREAD SHOW

SPACE's November – December exhibitions Bread Show and The Conversation #3 engage in wide ranging dialogue in which bread and baking are explored from multiple viewpoints, including class, 'creativity' and history.

GALLERY: Bread Show is a collaborative project by Maxime Iten, Sophie Lee, Will Robinson and Robert Self.

"If we are what we eat, why not bake mantras and eat our words?"

The exhibition is supported by Derek Carpenter and Bloomers Bakery - "Traditional Family Bakery and Outside Catering." 20e Selsdon Road, South Croydon, CR2 6PA

The CONVERSATION #3: SOPHIE LEE & CARLOS MONLEON GENDALL

Sophie Lee, SPACE / Bloomberg ON studio awardee and Bread Show artist is joined by artist Carlos Monleon Gendall in the latest installment of SPACE's conversation publishing platform.

In a wide ranging dialogue bread and baking are explored from multiple viewpoints, including class, 'creativity' and history. The Conversation will be available in printed form in gallery and below online. In addition an image relating to the dialogue will be printed behind the main desk.

Sophie Lee (born Johannesburg, 1988) lives and works in London. She gained a BA in Fine Art from the Slade School of Fine Art, London in 2012. Recent exhibitions include Young London, V22 (2013) and 'Speak, Memory!', N/V_PROJECTS at The Dye House, PAMI, September 2012, London.

Carlos Monleon Gendall (born Madrid, 1983) lives and works in London. He has variously operated as a chef, baker and cheesemonger while simultaneously proposing an art practice concerned with the relationship between shifting material values, culturally engaged foodstuffs and diegetic digestions. He has recently directed an edible opera about an anti-farinaceous Fourierian revolution and has begun fermenting 'speculative wines'.
